SPRING 2027

CITY TOUR

West London

here we come!

West London is an excellent destination for a youth rugby tour, offering a vibrant mix of competitive fixtures, iconic landmarks and plenty of opportunities for team bonding. With its rich sporting culture and easy access to world-famous attractions, it's a fantastic base for an unforgettable rugby experience.

Rugby is strong across West London, with a wide choice of well-established local clubs providing the chance to play competitive and enjoyable fixtures. The area is also home to the iconic Twickenham Stadium, the home of English rugby, which offers an inspiring backdrop for any touring side. Your team will benefit from challenging opposition while soaking up the passion for rugby that thrives in this part of the capital.

Away from the rugby, West London has endless attractions to enjoy. From exploring Kew Gardens and the River Thames to visiting world-class museums, shopping in bustling districts, or even taking a stadium tour, there's something for everyone.

With excellent rugby opportunities, iconic sporting venues and a wealth of things to do off the pitch, West London provides the perfect setting for a rugby tour. It's an ideal destination to combine sport, sightseeing and team bonding in one of the most exciting areas of the capital.

Let's go.....
